Extend the Reward Offer in the Murder of James Haley

On Saturday, July 14, 2018, at approximately 2:00 a.m., sixty-one-year-old James Haley was killed in a hit-and-run accident on the 1700 block of Firestone Boulevard at the intersection of Holmes Avenue in the unincorporated area of Florence in Los Angeles County. Mr. Haley was walking southbound on Firestone Boulevard, in a marked intersection in a crosswalk, when he was struck by a suspect driving a 2017 white Dodge Charger traveling eastbound. The suspect(s) then fled the scene eastbound on Firestone Boulevard without stopping to render medical aid or calling 9-1-1. It is unknown if other occupants were in the vehicle. After the incident, the vehicle was located a short distance away on the 1800 block of East 87th Street. Mr. Haley was transported to Saint Francis Hospital, where he succumbed to his injuries.

Mr. Haley was a long-time resident of the Second District. At the time of his murder, he was experiencing homelessness. He is survived by his son, Jason Haley.

To date, investigators have limited information regarding this tragedy. The California Highway Patrol (CHP) detectives believe that there may be witnesses in the
